

Annie

*Annie cries for the one she wants
Anxious nights by the telephone
All the hopeful girls and restless boys
Brace themselves for the lonely day
Annie cries for the one she wants
Awful fights, then they make up
All the angry men, and sad women
Brace themselves for the lonely day
    Oh Annie, will you break your word and go away
    Or Annie, will you break your heart and stay?
Annie cries for the one she wants
She looks around and she holds on
All the broken men, and fallen women
Brace themselves for the lonely day
    Oh Annie, will you break your word and go away
    Or Annie, will you break your heart and stay?
Annie cries for the one she wants
She says goodbye, then she drives off
Now all good men, and all good women
Brace themselves for the lonely day.*
