

Lil' Sure Shot

*Lil' Sure Shot,
she caught me by
the hunters moon
Pulled the trigger,
and shot me down
'fore I could move
Oh my love,
how could I know
your aim was true-how could I know Lil' Sure Shot,
sometimes your love
ricochets
Pull the trigger,
and my wounded heart
will feel the pain You're pretty fast but,
lay down your arms
and come and play with me-come and stay with me Well, she was quicker on the draw
So I surrendered my love Lil' Sure Shot,
you sent an arrow
through my heart
Pulled the trigger,
and now we'll never
be apart
Oh my love,
I'll be the one who's standing guard for you-
only for you*
