

Just a Little

*You can take your girl's night out,
And you secret relief,
And your barroom laughter,
And those well-thought out beliefs,
And your sober wit and intellect,
And Baileys & Crème,
And your God Damn judgments, and complex personality...and shove it*

All I want's just a little

*You can take genteel embraces
And your teathy smile
And your great concern
And all that sweet verbal bile
And your compliments , & accessories,
And the God damn cigarettes
And your comfort & body lotion, & expensive crème rinse...and
shove it*

All I want's just a little

*Go on and take your two Tylenols
With your Sunday sloth
And that voracious appetite
And dirty table cloth
And your dark chocolate & diamonds
And that so called work-out
Be sure to do your nails, and be sure you don't do without...ahh, shove it! A*

All I want's just a little...a little hootch,,a little cootch

All I want's just a little
